BENEFITTING

Friday, October 12, 2018

The Austin Professional Landmen's Association (APLA) is excited to announce the 2018 Austin Oilman's Sporting Clays Tournament. By supporting this event you will be helping an amazing local organization, Anthropos Arts, which was founded in 1998 to provide high-quality music education for low-income and at-risk students. Anthropos Arts brings top professional musicians from diverse music genres to give free music lessons, workshops and performance opportunities to students in middle schools and high schools in areas with high poverty rates. The benefits of Anthropos Arts programs are profound, affecting many aspects of students' lives: overall academic success, self-discipline, self-esteem, and a pathway to college.
